TRUSTEES OF CHURCH APPOINTED BY JUDGE

B. P. Willis, J. R. Rawlings, A. P. Rowe, E. C. Ninde, W. A. Bell, Dr. J. Garnett King.

Owing to the fact that there is no resaling business pending in King George Court matters, Juage R. H. L. Chilchestor, the newly appointed judge of the Fitteenth Judicial Circuit, in ecordance with the usual custom has recided not to hold a meeting of the mid-winter or January term of the Greuit Court of King George county, which otherwise would open on Monday, January 2.

The January 2.

The January term of the Corporation Court of this city, which will convene Thursday, January 5, will have the largest docket for some years. There will be a special grand jury. The trial of the cases of the Virginia Shirt Company against insurance companies; the Monroe will case; case of Henry Warden against. W. H. Timberlake for $5,000 damages for slander; the case of Brown vs. Embrey for $10,000 damages for slander, and a number of cases for debt will be gone into.

At the sale of the personal property at the home place of the late Alexander Pratt, in King George county, held yesterday, a large crowd gathered and everything sold well. The mules averaged $100 a pair, and all of the horses and entile brought big prices.

The colonial ball at the Opera Honse here last hight was one of the most enjoyable events of its kind ever held in this city, it was under the management of Mrs. W. Jeffries Chewning, Mrs. Clarence K. Howard and Mrs. C. O'Conor Goolrick, Thirty-tive couples participated, 'including a number of visitors from a distance. The content of Mrs. W.
